MR. HARPER RESIGNS

Withdraws as President of American National.

H. LYNN HIS SUCCESSOR

Board of Directors, in Accepting Resignation, Express Confidence Their President's Innocence. Would Have Stood by Him-Mr. Harper States Reasons for Action.

Washington, D. C., March 18, 1908. To the Board of Directors of the American National Bank of Washington.

charges brought against me of violating the pure food and drug law, and confidently look forward to a complete vindication, yet owing to the fact that such charges are pending and to the notoriety which has recently beer given to the prosecution against me, as well as to the subsequent unprecedented action of the Chief Executive of the United States, and believing that this notoriety might possibly tend to injure the interests of the American National Bank, I have, therefore, reached the conclusion that it will be for the best interests of the bank that I resign my position as its president.

I feel assured that all my friends will appreciate my motive for resigning.

Heartily thanking the members of the board and earnest co-operation in building up the position of strength which it now occupies among the institutions of Washington, I now tender my resignation.

Very respectfully, ROBT. N. HARPER.

Presented at Board Meeting.

The resignation of Mr. Harper as pre.1dent of the American National Bank understood that an effort was made to have him reconsider such action, the directors expressing strong belief in his stand by their president until his vindicaton should be complete. Mr. Harper, however, stated that his action had been taken after due deliberation, and in his judgment was the only wise course to
